

NONSCHOOL EMPLOYMENT BY PROFESSIONAL STAFF MEMBERS

Teachers are expected to give full attention to their school duties and do not accept employment outside of school hours that interferes with their classroom teaching, preparation of lessons or participation in professional meetings and in-service education activities of the school system.